

Academic Exchange Program between the University of the Philippines College of Law and Renmin University of China Asia-Pacific Institute of Law

Application Form

DEADLINE: JULY 31, 2019

Basic Information

Full Name	[LAST NAME], [First Name] [Middle Name]
Civil Status
Gender
Date and Place of Birth
Citizenship
Current Address
Permanent Address
E-mail Address
Contact Number

Academic Information

Year Level and Block
Current GWA
Membership in UP Law Organizations

Pre-Law and Extra-Curricular Activities

Undergraduate Degree, University, and Awards, if any (Include year of graduation)
Scholarships, Fellowships, Honors, Prizes received (Include titles and dates)

Extra-curricular Activities (Past and current)
Membership in Professional Societies, involvement with civic or voluntary organizations Have you previously participated in international academic or cultural exchange programs? If Yes, give details.
Countries visited in the past (include year and purpose of visit)
Languages spoken
Have you previously undertaken research or work relating to Chinese Studies?

Family Background

Spouse's Name
Occupation
Contact Details
Mother's Name
Occupation
Contact Details
Father's Name
Occupation
Contact Details

Financial Information

Are you a working student? If yes, give details.
Source(s) of Funds or Educational Support

Other Information

Have you ever been the subject of disciplinary, administrative, or criminal proceedings? (Provide details)
Are you a member of an indigenous group, a person with disability (PWD), or a solo parent?
Do you agree to the Selection Committee's obtaining of information on your academic standing (ex. True Copy of Grades) from the Office of the College Secretary?

Application Essay

Compose a 500-word essay in response to the following question:

How can you advocate for Philippine rights in the West Philippine Sea in a way that enhances dialogue and understanding between the Philippine and Chinese legal cultures?