UP College of Law starts countdown to its first interactive recognition rites

The University of the Philippines College of Law is all set to give its graduates a unique experience as the countdown begins to the Interactive Recognition Rites of the Class of 2020 (In Re: Class of 2020) scheduled on August 28, 2020 (Friday) at 3:00 p.m. via the official website of the College.

This year's recognition rites, with the theme "Agiwa'na," will be graced by the Former Ombudsman Conchita Carpio-Morales as the Guest of Honor. The online event will take the graduates and the viewing public to a dedicated page on the official website of the College, particularly designed for the virtual ceremony. Attendees are advised to view the videos in sequence and complete the online program.

The countdown timer and the recognition rites can be accessed via <http://bit.ly/Graduation2020UPLaw>

Agiwa'na is the Ifugao term for the brightest star in the night sky: Sirius. Light, as is a star, no matter how small, dispels darkness. Agiwa'na conveys the ambition of the graduating class of 2020—that as they leave the halls of the College, they become pole stars in their own right, stalwart counsels for justice, luminaries of legal scholarship, and vigilantes against darkness.
