ADVISORY NO. 25
Series of 2020

TEMPORARY SUSPENSION OF TRAVEL TO THE KINGDOM OF SAUDI ARABIA

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia has imposed a temporary travel suspension, effective 12 March 2020 to 12 more countries including the Philippines, bringing the total to 39 countries. Holders of valid residency (iqama) from the countries covered by the travel ban are required to return or exit from the Kingdom before the travel restriction takes effect within a 72-hour period or three (3) days from 12 March 2020.

Exempted from the temporary travel suspension are Filipino health workers returning to the Kingdom and evacuation shipping and trade trips. Returning health workers will undergo special medical evaluation upon their arrival in the Kingdom. Workers are advised to coordinate with their employers prior to their return.

For the information and guidance of all concerned,
