

VISION AND PLANS FOR THE UP LAW COMPLEX

By Prof. Sandra Marie Coronel

AGENDA	TASK
A. UP College of Law
Continuation of online classes	Assessment of online tools used during previous sem
	Further training of faculty and staff on online techniques and technologies
	Expansion of pool of professors capable of conducting online classes
	Development of better testing techniques
Readiness for resumption of face-to-face classes	Prepare to re-establish socratic method of teaching especially of freshmen and sophomores
	Perform diagnostic on students' learning of subjects that were taught online
	Preserve online materials for supplemental learning during face-to-face
International competitiveness	Continue with task of OBE-dizing syllabi
	Continue clustering of professors into bar subjects/discipline
	Continue and expand international linkages for more faculty, staff and student opportunities
Curriculum development	Add human rights in electives course offerings
	Review desirability of removing Nego as a required subject
	Push forward with curriculum changes suggested by clusters
	Study partnership with OCP and PAO for OLA
	Study OLA units for sophomores and juniors
	Assess birth pains of LLM Program and recalibrate where needed
Professional development of professors	Develop review professors and better administration of review courses
	Encourage long-time lecturers to devote more time to do academic work
	Assist Professors in securing LLM and Doctorate degrees
	Consider opportunities for faculty integration
Student development and assistance	Make PLJ more relevant and current Support for debates and participation in international competitions
	Refocus financial grants
	Encourage link up of students with those of other law schools

AGENDA	TASK
Strengthen Alumni links	Make Alumni Office permanent and with complete complement
	Develop meaningful relations with celebrating classes
	Link-up alumni with job offerings, educational opportunities
B. UP Law Library
Expanding our collection	Assess available materials and desired materials
	Expand the digital collection of resource materials
	Collate teaching materials developed during online courses
Developing online collaborations	Study IP protections for lectures to be shared with the public
	Collaborate with alumni on expansion of library collection
	Assess desirability of faculty and student access to online research platforms
Library staff development	Study staff potential for professional and personal development
	Explore skills enhancement through further study and training opportunities
C. UP Law Center
Better Bar performance	Reassess current Bar Review program
	Continue with mentoring program
Legislative assistance	Complete pending researches
	Collaborate on new studies and researches
Public education	Review partnerships with government agencies on lectures
	Expand partnerships with government agencies on teaching opportunities
	Explore other public teaching opportunities
Increase publications	Encourage professors to publish
	Explore online publication, marketing and sale of published books
Law Center staff development	Study staff potential for professional and personal development
	Explore skills enhancement through further study and training opportunities
	Review possibility of standardization of staff salary
UP Law Branding	Register UP Law logo
	Regulate use of UP Law logo in merchandise
	Prioritize Coop souvenir shop in use of UP Law logo