6. The PDL concerned shall also be summoned to the investigation office and be given the opportunity to explain his/her side and submit controverting evidence, if any. The PDL shall be required to reduce his statement in writing or the same be taken by the investigator and subscribed before the officer of the day or any jail officer rank. If deemed necessary, the investigator may also conduct ocular inspection of the place where the alleged violation was committed to gather evidence and validate the complaint.
7. The Jail Investigation Unit shall submit to the Warden a minute resolution of its findings together with its recommendations and appurtenant documents. The Warden shall evaluate the report and if he believes that there is no sufficient evidence to support the alleged complaint or violation, he shall dismiss the case. If he believes that sufficient evidence exists, he shall endorse it to the Board for a summary hearing or decide it by himself in his capacity as summary disciplinary officer in the absence of a disciplinary board.
8. The withdrawal of the complaint by the complainant shall not cause the termination of the investigation or disciplinary proceeding, especially when there is an evidence to support the complaint. More so, in cases where the investigation was initiated following an incident involving the PDL or apprehension of the latter for violation of law, rules and regulations.
9. Upon receipt of the endorsement from the Warden, the Board, within forty-eight (48) hours, shall convene and evaluate the report and evidence presented. 11. The proceedings may be suspended in the event that the witness is a visitor who already left the jail. The Board shall continue hearing the case once the visitor has returned to the jail.
12. If the Board finds the evidence sufficient to warrant further action, it shall summon the PDL to apprise him of the nature of the charge against him. If the PDL pleads guilty to the violation without presenting any controverting or mitigating evidence, the Board, after ensuring the voluntariness and explaining the consequences of his plea, shall impose the corresponding disciplinary action.

13. If the PDL denies the charge, a clarificatory questioning shall be conducted wherein the Board may propound clarificatory questions to the parties and examine material and relevant matters necessary in the determination of facts. At this stage, the PDL may still be given an opportunity to submit additional evidence to further disprove the allegation against him or present any mitigating circumstance that would lower the imposable disciplinary action.
14. During clarificatory questioning, the PDL may be allowed to seek legal assistance to his/her legal counsel but for advisory purposes only and the latter (legal counsel) cannot directly propound clarificatory questions. The entire proceedings shall be under the full control of the Board. Within forty-eight (48) hours or after the clarificatory questioning, the Board should come up with its decision through majority vote.
15. In all cases, the PDL must be advised to strictly abide by the rules and regulations and reminded that good behavior is indispensable for his/her early release through GCTA and/or granting of privileges.
16. The Board shall submit its report and decision to the Jail Warden without undue delay for his/her review and approval. The PDL shall be given a copy of the decision and another copy shall be included in his carpeta for future reference. The decision of the Warden shall be final and executory.
17. The proceedings before the disciplinary board shall be recorded and maintained by the Security and Control Section in its capacity as Secretariat.
