ADVISORY No. 148
Series of 2020

Entry Restrictions in the Sultanate of Oman

On 15 October 2020, the Supreme Committee of COVID-19 in the Sultanate of Oman announced that expatriates with expired visas shall not be allowed to return to the country. In effect, only those with new visas can enter the country based on the new issuance.

In addition, residents who are outside the country and possess a valid residence visa are allowed to return to the Sultanate. Those whose residency has expired will not be allowed to return to the country.

For the guidance and information of all concerned.
