

MASTER OF LAWS

NICHOLAS FELIX L. TY

Atty. Ty graduated cum laude from the University of the Philippines School of Economics with a degree in Business Economics. After which, he took up law and graduated from the UP College of Law before being admitted to the Philippine Bar in 2004.

He also holds a Master's Degree in International Economic and Business Law, which was conferred upon him by the Kyushu University Faculty of Law, under the auspices of the Young Leaders' Program, a scholarship sponsored by the Japanese government. Before joining the executive branch of the government, he served as the Director of the UP Law Center Institute of Government and Law Reform, while concurrently teaching at the UP College of Law as an Assistant Professor. He was a Partner of the MOSVELDTT Law Offices, which he co-founded.

Atty. Ty, as he is more commonly known, is an Undersecretary in the Department of Justice (DOJ). His assignments at the DOJ include the Inter-Agency Council Against Trafficking (IACAT), Anti-Terrorism Council (ATC), National Justice Information System (NJIS), and Governance in Justice (GOJUST).

Prior to his appointment as Undersecretary in August 2022, he was an Assistant Secretary from 2020 to 2022 in the same Department.
