

REBECCA E. KHAN

Dr. Khan is an international arbitration and litigation practitioner, specializing in investor-State dispute resolution. She has experience working with international organizations such as the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), and the International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes (ICSID), World Trade Organization (WTO).

She graduated from the University of the Philippines - College of Law and later received a Master of Laws degree in International and Comparative Law from George Washington University as a Fulbright and Thomas Buergenthal scholar. She also earned a Doctor of Juridical Science degree from the Central European University and served as a visiting scholar at the Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public Law and International Law in Heidelberg.

She is currently the Associate Dean of the De La Salle University (DLSU) – Tañada-Diokno College of Law, and an Associate Professor at DLSU. She is also on the corps of professors of the Philippine Judicial Academy (PhilJA), as part of the International and Maritime Law Department.